

Routt County CattleWomen Scholarship

Deadline April 5, 2023

Completed forms should be returned to:

RCCWscholarship@gmail.com

Awarded to students who are residents of Routt County and meet at least one of our two criteria: 1) pursuing a degree related to or benefiting the beef industry, or 2) member of a family currently involved in Routt County beef production.

Selection Criteria and Information

1. Email RCCWscholarship@gmail.com with any questions or concerns.
2. A completed application will include application form, 2 current letters of recommendation, transcript, resume, essay.
3. The scholarship will be awarded to students who demonstrate their success in college by their scholastic performance, extracurricular activities, and community involvement. The ability to be a good spokesperson for the beef industry is also important. Financial need is not a consideration.
4. Notification of scholarship awards will be during the high school graduation ceremony. Home-schooled individuals will receive award notification by email.
5. Interviews are required and will be held on a mutually agreed time.
6. Applicant must sign a Yampa Valley Community Foundation form that will be provided to the applicant for their monies to be released.
7. Yampa Valley Community Foundation will send the scholarship money on our behalf to be split between school terms. If the student does not enroll second semester, the school must send unused funds back to the scholarship fund at YVCF.
8. Scholarship funds are designated to be used for tuition, student fees, and supplies. The IRS does not allow for unused money to be issued directly to the student for other expenses, and unused money will be returned to RCCW Scholarship Fund.
9. Recipient must be willing to have his/her name used for publicity.
