

GOOD News

South Routt high school Student Carmen Anarella is a finalist for Opera Steamboat's Voice of Steamboat! And, the South Routt Education Endowment Fund is her charity of choice during her campaign to become the Voice of Steamboat. We are honored!

Singing for Opera Steamboat & South Routt Schools

Carmen Anarella is a freshman at SoRoCo High School. She's attended SoRoCo Schools since pre-school and loves the personal connections. Carmen says the strong bonds are part of what make her education in a small school spectacular. In school, Carmen enjoys being a part of music and FFA.

More GOOD News

The endowment has grown to $188,976! You, our generous donors, have given $127,172 since December 30, 2011 ($5,678 in 2020) and the professional investment strategies of the Yampa Valley Community Foundation has netted $61,804 in growth over the last 8 years!

Help grow the fund to over $200,000 in 2021. Pretty soon we will be knocking on the door of a quarter million—so much closer to our goal of one million than only a few short years ago!

Once the fund reaches $1M then the annual gains will become available to support education in South Routt in perpetuity.

South Routt Education Endowment Fund is managed by the Yampa Valley Community Foundation
